Digital Reference Services in Academic Libraries presents the background of DRS, evolution of DRS, the concept of DRS, emerging models of DRS, benefits and limitation of DRS, personalized services, trends and challenges, technological developments, evaluation and guidelines, effectiveness and DRS in academic libraries. The case study examined the existing status of digital reference services (DRS) in four selected public academic libraries in Malaysia. Focused is given on the awareness, usage, users' perception, users' satisfaction, library's performance, and looked at the perceived needs, issues and problems faced by librarians and students. The study is important to determine how academic librarians are exploiting the latest information and communication technologies to improve reference service operations. Recommendations are made on the need for the implementation of synchronous DRS, enhancing the role of DRS, marketing and promotion, staff training, user education programmes and cooperation. The main contribution of this book is the assessment of effectiveness of DRS in academic libraries in Malaysia, the identification of perceived needs, issues and problems and suggestions on the areas of improvement in the use of DRS. In the process, a conceptual model for the effectiveness of the implementation of DRS in academic libraries in Malaysia is presented. The author also proposes directions for future research in the area of DRS.

Offers a new dimension to the halal industry as the chapters cover various aspects from marketing, food tourism, economics, internal marketing, corporate governance, accounting, hospitality to halal certification that deal with complying to the halal standard. Interesting fact on Islamic dietary laws amalgamates the business practices in the hospitality sector with Muslim religious needs. As such, Islamic principles must be adhered at all times as far as halal business is concerned. This book focuses Islamic interdisciplinary and will appeal to students, academician, researchers and halal industry practitioners.

Basic Anesthesia Handbook is a core anaesthesia knowledge packed in a nutshell for a quick grasp and fast read on the important facts of perioperative anaesthesia management primarily designed for medical students. It also provides a concise and comprehensive knowledge of the basic principle of anaesthesia for doctors who are in their early exposure of the specialty and those who intend to pursue this field as their future professional career. The contents of the handbook are clearly highlighted in point forms and reinforced with diagrams, figures, graphs, tables, flowcharts and mnemonics. Description of the subjects is presented in a systematic manner using simple language that is easily understood. This handbook serves as one of the references in anaesthesia, hence prior basic knowledge on anatomy, physiology and pharmacology is still essential to appreciate the true beauty anaesthesia.

This book focuses on writing strategies required for theses and academic reports. It is intended for research students particularly those at the post-graduate level who are at the writing stage of their study. The book is structured into chapters according to the generic structure of a thesis and examples are taken from six PhD theses representing the areas of humanities, social sciences, and science and technology. Excerpts are extracted from each chapter of the sample theses in its attempt to provide authentic examples. Emphasis is given to the use of textual strategies in writing the chapters based on the communicative purposes of each chapter.

Corporate Secretarial Practice Compliance and Administration is a sequel to Corporate Secretaryship and Governance (2008) and Corporate Governance: Practice of the Company Secretary (2010) and has been revised to accommodate the fundamental changes in the Companies Act 2016. This book provides comprehensive coverage from incorporation to winding up, detailing the procedures associated with company formation and administration, managing and altering share capital, changes to the law on meetings, reporting and auditing requirements, corporate rescue, rehabilitation and reorganisation. This book focuses on the director's duties and responsibilities in the administration of the company and the governance role of the company secretary in ensuring compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2016, the company's Constitution, the Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements, the Malaysian Code of Corporate Governance and other related laws and regulations. In addition, the new statutory forms are shown as Exhibits at the end of each chapter for easy reference.

This book discusses multilingual postcolonial common law, focusing on Malaysia's efforts to shift the language of law from English to Malay, and weighing the pros and cons of planned language shift as a solution to language-based disadvantage before the law in jurisdictions where the majority of citizens lack proficiency in the traditional legal medium. Through analysis of legislation and policy documents, interviews with lawyers, law students and law lecturers, and observations of court proceedings and law lectures, the book reflects on what is entailed in changing the language of the law. It reviews the implications of societal bilingualism for postcolonial justice systems, and raises an important question for language planners to consider: if the language of the law is changed, what else about the law changes?

The book comprises papers presented at the 7th International Conference on University Learning and Teaching (InCULT) 2014, which was hosted by the Asian Centre for Research on University Learning and Teaching (ACRULeT) located at the Faculty of Education, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Shah Alam, Malaysia.
